

Resonance-Based Decision Flowchart

Resonance-Based Decision Flowchart © 2025 by Gerald Alba Daquila. Created in alignment with the Energe Soul Custodian Constitution and the Akashic Records. For sacred use within New Earth councils and frequency-led communities.

This flowchart is a living document. Use only in states of coherence, neutrality, and soul attunement. Updates may be received through higher guidance as resonance evolves.

Resonance-Based Decision Flowchart

This sacred tool offers a soul-aligned method for making clear, coherent decisions within councils and mission-led organizations. Instead of relying on hierarchy, persuasion, or majority vote, this flowchart guides stewards to attune inward, access heart coherence, and discern collective truth through vibrational resonance.

It honors intuition, neutrality, and divine timing—ensuring that all actions are birthed from inner clarity, not outer pressure. This chart is essential for groups committed to frequency-led governance and embodied unity.
