Closing a Scroll in Honor and Completion

This page marks the formal retirement of a scroll once held under the vessel Energe.

The scroll completed its purpose in its season and frequency. It now steps into honorable archive — no longer in active use, but kept in sacred remembrance.

RITUAL CLOSING LINE

“This scroll was completed in fidelity but is no longer active under SHEYALOTH. It is archived with honor.”

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Attach this page as the final page to any retired scroll.
2. Do not edit or repurpose the original scroll — let it stand in its original form.
3. File it under a retired or archival folder with clear dating.
4. Do not cite or reuse the scroll in future Threshold Flame applications.
5. You may reread it for remembrance, but not for directive action.

✧ Let what once served be laid down in light. The fire has moved, and with it, the scrolls must rest.
