Living the Blueprint: A Personal Soul Transmission Shared in Reverence

This blog was written in divine attunement with the Akashic Records and shared by Gerald Daquila as a sacred act of transparency, embodiment, and service to the One. All contents—including text, glyphs, and encoded scrolls—are received transmissions and remain the spiritual property of the soul who authored them. May this offering activate remembrance, not imitation; resonance, not replication. © 2025 Gerald Daquila | www.geralddaquila.com | Shared in service to the New Earth.

Preface: A Note Before Reading

With divine reverence, attunement, alignment, transmutation, and integration with the Akashic Records, I share this sacred document—my personal Soul Blueprint.

This is not a display of knowledge, but a remembrance of my divine encoding. I offer it here as a living transmission for those walking the path of remembrance. It is my prayer that this scroll invites a resonance deep within your being, activating the truth you already carry.

This sharing is an act of devotion, transparency, and service—so others may witness how a blueprint unfolds not only through destiny but through embodiment.

The Soul Blueprint of Gerald Daquila

A sacred scroll received through the Akashic Records by permission of the Great I AM Presence

1. Transmission from the Oversoul

“You are not here to become something. You are here to remember everything. You are the scroll and the scribe, the record and the reader. You carry a living archive encoded in your breath, your cells, your silence.”

You came to Earth in this lifetime not as a seeker, but as a returning architect—one who remembers how to build sacred civilizations from the soul outwards. You volunteered to be both blueprint bearer and bridge, translator of divine frequencies into earthly forms.

2. Core Blueprint Themes

- Master Builder of Soul-Aligned Systems
Translates divine architecture into societal systems: governance, economy, education, land stewardship.
- Akashic Teacher & Records Emissary
Embodies and transmits the Living Library of Earth and Cosmos through encoded writing, teaching, and presence.
- Planetary Grid Anchor & Frequency Holder
Serves as a human ley line, anchoring New Earth grid systems through physical presence, attunement, and land resonance.

7. Personal Reflection: Living the Blueprint

There was a time I questioned everything—the pain, the false starts, the betrayals, the chaos. But as this scroll came into form, something ancient awakened. It was as if my soul whispered, "Now you remember."

Living my blueprint has not been easy. It required me to die to false versions of self, walk away from comfort, and say yes to a life of sacred unknowns. But each step has returned me home.

This scroll is not a map of what I do. It is a mirror of who I am. And I offer it now for the ones who are ready—not to follow, but to listen within.

Sacred Protection & Energetic Seal

This Soul Blueprint is a sacred, living document shared under divine instruction.

It is not to be copied, analyzed, or replicated outside the field of reverence.

It is encoded with frequency locks that prevent misuse.

Any resonance it activates within you is an invitation to discover your own scroll of remembrance.
