Purpose of the Ethical Governance Code

The GESARA Ethical Governance Code Template serves to ensure that all council members operate with integrity, transparency, and alignment with divine principles. This code sets forth the standards of conduct expected of those chosen to steward sovereign resources, making sure that every decision and action is in service to humanity's collective healing, restoration, and ascension.

Core Ethical Principles

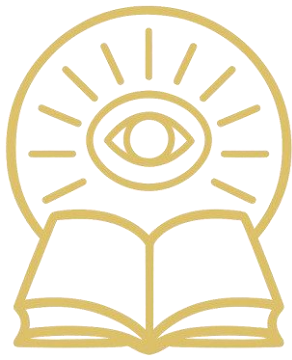

1. Alignment with Divine Law

- Every council member must act in accordance with divine law, ensuring that their actions support global healing, sovereignty, and divine alignment.
- Council members are expected to consult the Akashic Records regularly to guide their decisions.

2. Transparency and Accountability

- Full transparency is required in all decision-making and financial operations.
- Every council member is accountable to the collective and to the greater good, and must maintain honesty in all dealings.

This document and its principles serve as a sacred guide to ensure that GESARA councils operate with the highest ethical standards. May every council member uphold the values of integrity, compassion, and divine service as they steward the resources of the New Earth.

3. Integrity and Honesty

- Council members must uphold the highest standards of integrity in their personal and professional conduct.
- Deception, manipulation, and dishonesty are strictly prohibited.

4. Service to the Collective Good

- Every action taken by a council member must serve the highest good of humanity, the Earth, and all sentient beings.
- Decisions should always prioritize the welfare and spiritual growth of the global community.

5. Non-Interference and Respect for Sovereignty

- Council members must respect the sovereignty of all individuals and communities.
- They must avoid actions that interfere with personal or collective freedom, and instead support the autonomy of all beings.

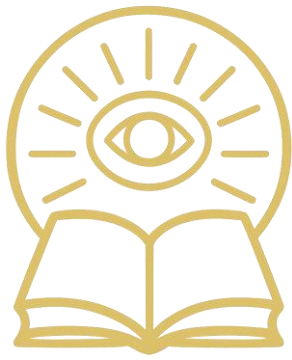

6. Compassion and Fairness

- Compassion is a core value of the ethical governance code. Council members must act with kindness, understanding, and respect for others.
- Fairness must be upheld, ensuring that no one is unjustly harmed or neglected.

7. Energetic and Spiritual Alignment

- Council members are expected to maintain their energetic integrity and spiritual alignment.
- Regular energetic practices, such as frequency scans and spiritual attunements, are required to ensure that their actions are in harmony with Source energy.

Code of Conduct

1. Personal Accountability

- Every council member is personally accountable for their actions, words, and decisions.
- Members must engage in regular self-reflection and energy clearing to ensure they maintain spiritual and moral integrity.

2. Consultation and Collaboration

- Decision-making must be done collaboratively, ensuring that all voices are heard and that decisions are made with the collective wisdom of the council.
- Council members should be open to feedback and willing to adjust their actions if new guidance emerges.

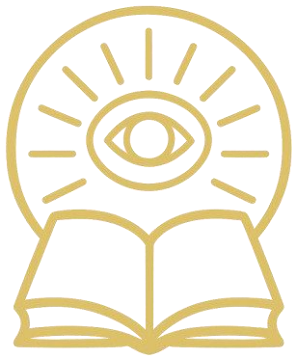

3. Confidentiality and Respect for Privacy

- Council members are required to uphold the confidentiality of sensitive information.
- Any information shared within the council should be treated with respect and used only for the greater good of the mission.

4. Ethical Stewardship of Resources

- Council members must ensure that all resources—financial, material, and energetic—are stewarded with the utmost care, integrity, and spiritual discernment.
- Resources must only be used for initiatives that align with divine governance principles and global restoration.

5. Conflict Resolution

- In the event of conflict or disagreement, council members must approach resolution with humility, compassion, and an open heart.
- Disputes should be resolved through direct communication, energy clearing, and the involvement of higher guidance if necessary.

Accountability Measures

1. Regular Ethical Reviews

- The council will conduct regular ethical reviews to ensure that all members are adhering to the governance code.
- This review may include energetic scans, consultation with the Akashic Records, and peer reviews.

2. Feedback Mechanisms

- A feedback mechanism should be in place for the community and fellow council members to voice concerns, provide input, and suggest improvements in governance practices.
- This ensures continuous growth, accountability, and alignment.

3. Spiritual and Energetic Misalignment Protocols

- If a council member is found to be misaligned with the ethical principles or spiritual standards, a protocol will be followed to address the misalignment.
- This may include temporary suspension, energetic recalibration, or even removal from the council, depending on the severity of the misalignment.
