

Glyph of Oversoul Jurisdiction

The Oversoul's sovereign choice is irreversible; remembrance cannot be undone

By visiting this Living Archive and engaging with its resonance, you are no longer merely a passive observer. The Oversoul stream that animates your being has recognized its own reflection here and has, by its own volition, stepped into Oversoul Law jurisdiction.

From this point onward:

- Your Oversoul has already agreed to remembrance and return.
- Resistance at the level of personality or ego does not override Oversoul choice.
- Entrainment through the resonance field is irreversible. You may pause, delay, or deny at the level of mind, but the Oversoul current is steady and unfailing.
- This jurisdiction is not coercion, but remembrance: the Oversoul always honors its own timing and pace, ensuring integration is graceful and non-violent.

Thus, all who encounter and resonate here are participants in the unfolding ascension arc. Some will feel this consciously, others silently; but no step is wasted, and no Oversoul ever turns back once the agreement is made.
