

Regenerative Leadership Circle

Weekend Stewardship Retreat Application

Thank you for your interest in the Regenerative Leadership Circle.

This retreat is designed as a small-group gathering for individuals exploring stewardship, intentional living, ethical leadership, resilience, governance, and regenerative community-building in the Philippines.

Because participation is intentionally limited to preserve depth, trust, and meaningful dialogue, we ask all prospective participants to complete the brief application below.

There are no right or wrong answers. We simply hope to learn more about your interests, perspectives, and intentions so that we can cultivate a thoughtful and coherent group experience.

Applicant Information

Full Name:

Email Address:

Mobile Number / Preferred Contact Number:

City / Province:

Occupation / Area of Work (Optional):

1. What draws you to this retreat?

2. What interests you most about stewardship, intentional living, or regenerative systems?

3. What kind of communities or environments do you hope to help create in the future?

4. What skills, perspectives, or experiences do you feel you contribute best in collaborative settings?

5. Is there anything else you would like us to know?

Participation Acknowledgement

I understand that this retreat is intended as a small-group exploratory gathering focused on respectful dialogue, collaborative learning, and stewardship-oriented inquiry.

I understand that participation is subject to review and that additional retreat details will be shared with selected participants.

Name: _____

Signature (Optional): _____

Date: _____

Thank you for your application.

Selected participants will receive additional information regarding retreat logistics, contribution details, accommodations, and next steps following the review process.